2016 ANNUAL REPORT

From our Board Chair and Executive Director

Dear Friends,

2016 was a year of new beginnings.

Having spent over a year firmly rooted in our new home – The Skalny Building at One Mount Hope Avenue – we have embarked on a path to greater community partnership and engagement. Thanks to the support of our generous donors, and the continued dedication of our tremendous Team at Bivona, we are ready to face the exciting challenges ahead.

In the past year, over 1,900 children were helped on the path to healing. We have now evaluated more than 17,000 children since we opened our doors in August of 2004. We announced the creation of the I/DD Alliance of Greater Rochester, an endeavor within our community to combat the prevalence of child sexual abuse for children with disabilities. We made a significant change to our website, www.BivonaCAC.org, resulting in our winning not one, but two 2016 Best of the Web Awards, and we asked the community to “Think About It,” “Talk About It,” and “Do Something.” at the November 5th TEDxFlourCity. National Children’s Alliance (NCA) notified us of re-accreditation and, among other accolades based on the work of our phenomenal Team, named Bivona a “top child advocacy center in the country.” Our beautiful new home received a 2016 Landmark Society Award of Merit, and we began to utilize video recording software in forensic interviews to allow our Team the ability to access this emerging technology in child abuse cases.

As you read on in our 2016 Annual Report, you will see that our hope is shared with so many of you. Our community, consisting of valued friends, donors, partners, staff, and volunteers, working together is at the heart of Bivona – and it is what guides the dedicated work done to help children heal each and every day.

With immense gratitude and respect,

A note from Mary ...

In December, I announced that after 15 years, I will be stepping down as Executive Director. I want to take this opportunity to thank you—all of you—for your support, commitment, and dedication to Bivona. Whether you are the soldiers on the front line, the donors supporting our Team, volunteers that help leverage our incredible talent, or an ambassador spreading the word about child abuse, THANK YOU. I say this often...it takes an army of people to do this incredibly difficult but inspiring work. And together we have made a true impact in the lives of more than 17,000 children. I hope you are proud.

The privilege and honor of working with each and every one of you has been all mine.

Champions for Children

Sue VanStrydonck, Committee Member

The 2016 Diane Larter Champion for Children Award recipient is Sue VanStrydonck. Sue played a significant role in helping to build the foundation of what Bivona Child Advocacy Center is today. Her knowledge of Bivona includes roles on the Steering Committee, as a member of Bivona's staff, and on the Program Committee.

Sue began her career in the Child Protective Services field in the 1970s, a time when there was minimal awareness and education on child sexual abuse. For three decades, she worked tirelessly to educate the community on how to identify child sexual abuse, establish treatment services for children and their families who were victims of child sexual abuse, and implement a coordinated intervention response among law enforcement and CPS.

While working as a Child Protective Administrator, Sue was instrumental in establishing a foundation for Rochester to open a Child Advocacy Center, at a time when few existed in the United States.

Sue's selfless dedication and passion to help children who have endured the trauma of abuse are what make her an outstanding recipient for the Diane Larter Champion for Children Award. Her years of commitment and work exemplify Bivona's mission and values.

"To receive an award named after Diane Larter is absolutely amazing," said Sue. "She has been my mentor and is an incredible advocate for kids. She is everything anyone would ever want to be (that is) in the field of human services."

The Diane Larter Champion for Children Award is awarded to a community member in honor of his/her selfless dedication through community support and volunteerism. Nominated by his/her peers, the Team Champion for Children Award is given to a member of Bivona's multidisciplinary team who goes above and beyond for children each and every day. Both awards are given at Bivona's Annual Dinner in September.

Kyle P. Rossi, Assistant United States Attorney for the Western District of New York, Rochester Office

Bivona Child Advocacy Center's 2016 Team Champion for Children Award recipient is Kyle P. Rossi, Assistant United States (U.S.) Attorney.

Kyle knew at a young age it was his civic duty to use his talents and abilities to help those in need. Kyle worked for a civil law firm immediately out of law school in 2006 and it was not until August 2007 that he found his passion when he was hired as a Monroe County Assistant District Attorney (ADA).

In 2011, Kyle was promoted to the position of Senior Assistant District Attorney in the Child Abuse Unit. Although he knew working in the field of child abuse would be tough, he found it to be the most honorable work that could be done in law. While in this position, Kyle worked closely with other members of Bivona's team to investigate and prosecute major child abuse cases, including homicides of children.

"I would like to use this award to raise awareness, take people out of their comfort zones, and motivate them to combat this issue," said Kyle. "I will always be motivated to protect children in my career."

Kyle has dedicated the last 6 years to prosecuting major felony child abuse cases as a Senior ADA, and in November of 2016, he was appointed as an Assistant U.S. Attorney for the Western District of New York, Rochester Office.

"People do unimaginable things to children," said Kyle. "I am proud to be part of the team who fights back."

5 Big Things YOU Helped Us Achieve in 2016

Re-accreditation by the National Children's Alliance

The work done by our phenomenal Team led to Bivona's re-accreditation by the National Children's Alliance in December 2016. The National Children's Alliance (NCA) is the national association and accrediting body for Child Advocacy Centers (CACs). With a focus on teamwork, the NCA's CAC model places an emphasis on putting the needs of children who experience sexual or physical abuse first.

I/DD Alliance of Greater Rochester

In 2016, Bivona and member agencies announced the formation of the I/DD Alliance of Greater Rochester to the public. The I/DD Alliance was created in September 2015 to improve communication and training opportunities for professionals working with children with intellectual and developmental disabilities. Children with disabilities are 3-6 times more likely to endure the trauma of child sexual abuse than their peers.

Landmark Society Award

On November 13, Bivona received a 2016 Landmark Society Award of Merit in recognition of the outstanding rehabilitation of the Skalny Building at One Mount Hope Avenue. Bivona's new home is the oldest surviving industrial building, formerly the "Old Stone Warehouse," in Rochester. Thank you to our team of experts including project architect Norbert Hausner, C.P. Kelly & Associates, Saralinda Hooker, owner's representatives Carl & Tara Maier, and the many supporters of our Building Hope Campaign!

Best of the Web

In late 2015, we updated our website [BivonaCAC.org] to better meet the growing needs of the community. We were thrilled to be nominated for the 2016 Best of the Web Awards presented by the Rochester Business Journal, and we are proud to say that we won the top award overall as well as the award for Best of the Human Services category. Thank you to our designer, Andrew Soucier, and our wonderful marketing team for all of their hard work!

"Think about it.
Talk about it.
Do something."

TEDxFlourCity
x = independently organized TED event

On November 5th, Bivona posed three simple actions to the 2016 TEDxFlourCity audience; Think About It. Talk About It. Do Something. We discussed the prevalence of child sexual abuse in our community, demonstrated why using appropriate terminology and being aware of warning signs is important, and finally, we asked everyone to "Do Something" and share their knowledge with three people. Today, we ask the same of you. View the TED talk online at www.BivonaCAC.org/tedx and share this important message with three people today.

Shining a Light

Community Events

Support Bivona by hosting your own event! You will help raise awareness about child sexual and physical abuse, and your support will help Bivona provide critical programs and services for our community's children. For more information, contact Donna Lipari, Special Events Manager, at dlipari@BivonaCAC.org or 585-935-7831.

Volunteers

Bivona volunteers dedicate thousands of hours each year to help our children. We could not do the important work we do without them. Depending on the amount of direct contact you would like to have with children, volunteer jobs require different levels of training. Our intention is to provide a meaningful, productive experience for all involved. If you are interested in becoming a Bivona volunteer, contact Molly Snell-Larch, Volunteer & Administrative Specialist, at msnelllarch@BivonaCAC.org or 585-754-9366.

Community volunteers at the 2016 Day of Caring

Alicia's Circle

Alicia was the very first child to receive support and services from Bivona. We celebrate her courage and honor her story with Alicia's Circle, Bivona's Planned

Alicia's Circle members Gigi and Doug Lamb

Giving program, designed to help all child victims that enter our realm today and in the future. To become a member of Alicia's Circle is to leave your own legacy to thousands of children just like Alicia — a legacy of trust, healing, and justice. For more information on Planned Giving contact Cynthia Pacia, Director of Development, at cpacia@BivonaCAC.org or 585-935-7838.

"My entire adult life has involved providing help and hope to children. My wife and I have raised six children, two of which are adopted, and we have cared for over 50 babies through foster care in the last 17 years, and continue to do so. Working with Bivona allows me another way to help our community's most vulnerable children – children who have been traumatized by sexual or physical abuse."
